

Politics/Economy (France)

- General Information

1. When was your nation formed (date)?

The nation of France was formed

2. What is the current (c. 1910) population of your nation?

41,350,000. Around 1910, the growth of France's population stalled because of the population drops caused by the war.

3. Who is the current leader of your nation and who is its foreign minister?

Raymond Poincare was the President of France in 1914 and Rene Viviani was the prime minister.

4. Name two major cities and one major port (city) in your nation.

Paris is the capital of France. Marseille is the largest port in France and has the second largest population.

- How far has industrialization developed in your nation? (Is your economy primarily agriculture, industrial, or trade based? – What materials does your nation import from its colonies?) (1/2 page)

France's economy is primarily