Letter of Recommendation Release Form

Return this completed form to your recommender

NOTICE AND INSTRUCTIONS: The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) protects personally identifiable information in student education records from disclosure without the student's signed, written consent. Under FERPA, students may—but are not required to—waive their right to inspect and review or request amendment to confidential letters of reference or recommendation; however, school officials may decline a request if a waiver is not in place. Please note that should the student choose to waive their federal rights under FERPA, the waiver remains valid indefinitely.

If the letter of recommendation will include only directory information and personal impressions of the student, a release is not required. This release is only required when the letter will include non-directory information, such as: GPA, grades/exam scores, classes taken, disciplinary status.
